Double Header at Brooklyn Between Leaders Should Prove Interesting.

International News Service: NEW YORK, Sept. 30, - Never before in the history of the na-Conal pastime has the fight for the Louisville bennants in the National and American league kept the fans guessing | 81 as has this year's conflict. Fandom Kansas City is in the highest pitch of excitement over the races which will not be decided until the final series both leagues are played.

In the American league, unless the unforseen happens, the Red Sox will win the honors. They have ning, rain) still four games to play, one with Boston-New York, rain. the Yankees and three with the Athletics. They have but to win two of them even though the White Sox take all their remaining four games from the Indians. And the Athletics are not in a position to put up a stiff resistance.

In the National league the race Hes between the Brooklyns and Phillies, with too many "ifs" in it to forecast the ultimate winner, If the Phillies take both games of today's double header from the Dodgers they will have the best chance. If the teams split even the victor will probably not be known until the last day of the season-
